

Richard Drabble KC Essay Prize for Human Rights Law

Data Protection Notice

Who we are: Landmark Chambers is a leading set of barristers' chambers in London with over 100 barristers specialising in planning, property, environment, public and administrative, and rating and valuation law.

Your personal data: We obtain your name, contact details, and basic details of educational background (current or most recent course/institute) and those of your academic or pupil supervisor, along with your application and essay itself which may be identifiable in the broadest sense. This data is only processed for the administration of the Richard Drabble KC Essay Prize for Human Rights Law as described below. The data will be aggregated as soon as possible, and the forms will then be deleted. We will complete this by 31 December 2025.

Our purposes for processing your data: We will process your personal data for the purposes of administering Richard Drabble KC Essay Prize for Human Rights Law and (in the case of successful entrants) publicising and promoting future such competitions. For more information on how we process personal data, please visit our privacy policy page.

Retention of your data: We will retain all entrants' applications for one year after the competition deadline and will then delete them permanently. Successful entrants' data will be retained for five years after the deadline as follows: 1) winners' names and entries will stay on our website to promote the competition, and 2) we may contact past winners to request (non-mandatory) participation in publicity materials.

Should you have any questions about the use of your data as above, please contact dataprotection@landmarkchambers.co.uk
